SYNOD OF NEBRASKA.

This ecclesiastical body representing the Presbyterian interests throughout the state held its annual meeting in the city of Hastings and has just closed one of the most interesting sessions connected with this body. The opening sermon was preached by the retiring Moderator Rev. John Fleming, from the text "Thy Kingdom come." Rev. E. L. Dodder was chosen moderator and Rev. J. V. Griswold and A. B. Irwin temporary clerks. Aside from the routine business several features of special interest and importance occupied the attention of Synod. The dedication services of the McCormick Hall belonging to the Hastings college were duly observed in the college chapel and were witnessed by a large assembly. Rev. Herriek Johnson D. D. L. D. delivered one of his characteristic brilliant addresses. The meeting was presided over by the state superintendent of missions, Rev. Geo. T. O. Amon and Rev. John Fleming. Rev. J. A. Griffis and Rev. H. M. Giltner took part in the devotional services of the occasion.

During meeting of synod Rev. Dr. W. F. Johnson, from India, gave an address, giving in rapid detail the progress of the church work in that far-off land. Hastings college received a hearty recognition from the synod in connection with Bellevue, and it is hoped that this happy adjustment of differences will contribute to the increased growth and prosperity of both institutions.

Rev. Geo. T. O. Amon, state superintendent of missions, gave a detailed report of the great work accomplished throughout the synod during the past year. An encouraging advance was shown in every department of the state work under his supervision, and an enthusiastic and earnest endorsement of the superintendent's fidelity was given by the synod. Rev. W. W. Harsha, D. D., president of Bellevue college, addressed for the first time the students and friends of Hastings college in the new chapel. The doctor's address was full of good points and his well-known ability was duly appreciated by his deeply interested audience.

A glance at the personnel of the synod of Nebraska convinces anyone that the synod of Nebraska will not suffer in comparison with any of her eastern sister synods as regards ability and earnest workers. The Presbyterian church growth has kept pace with the large increase of the features which have pushed into prominence this young and vigorous state of Nebraska.

Ten years ago the synod was first organized and had at that time thirty-seven ministers, sixty-four churches, and less than 2,000 members. The superintendent's report showed a list at present of 124 ministers, 133 churches, and over 6,000 members, with a promise of a large increase from year to year. The annual report of the ladies' missionary society connected with the synod was received with great satisfaction and shows a healthy and prosperous condition of affairs in this branch of Christian work. The contributions for foreign missions for the year being $209 and for home missions $1,100. Taking it all in all the meeting was one of exceptional interest and importance.

ATTENTION

ward republicans will meet at the Millard hotel, Tuesday night, October 17, 7:30 p. m. for consultation during the campaign.

CAMPAIGN CULLINGS.

A Great Republican Rally Next Tuesday Evening.

The Democrats to Follow on the 21st—The People's Party Next Week.

THE REPUBLICAN RALLY.

Arrangements are now being made, by the Omaha Blaine and Logan club, for the grandest political demonstration ever witnessed in Nebraska to take place next Thursday evening in this city. The executive committee of the county central committee is now busily engaged in making every preparation that will insure the success of the event. An informal meeting was held last night by this committee but the arrangements were not at all fully completed. The demonstration, although under the auspices of the Omaha club, will not be purely local, the clubs of the surrounding cities to be present.

Invitations have been extended to the republican clubs in Plattsmouth, Ashland, Schuyler, Columbus, Blair, Fremont and Council Bluffs, and been accepted. The Grange Island Lincoln have also been invited, but no reply as yet has been received. They will be expected to be present, however.

Besides these visiting clubs the six clubs from the various wards in the city will be present in full force. The Scandinavian club, six hundred strong, and that of the colored republican voters, is enthusiastic over the demonstration, and is expected to be out to a man. In addition to these, also, there will be the marching club under command of young Howard, who has been drilling its members for some time past. About one hundred young men belong to this organization. Finally there will be a squad of cavalry numbering about one hundred, under the command of Joe Redman. To fully complete the street parade there will be a company of republican young men, forty-four strong, and old enough to vote in 1888, under the leadership of Master Broach, son of W. J. Broach of this city. All the participants in the parade will carry torches, and the drilled company will be in line in full uniform. The Blaine and Logan club has just received 1,000 torches and with the 400 more that are now available, will equip the procession by itself with 1,900 flambeaux. The whole procession will be commanded by W. J. Broach, grand marshal of the day. He will be aided by assistants, all of whom have not yet been chosen.

The various clubs of the city will form into companies at their various headquarters and will march to those of the Central club in Woodworth's hall near the corner of Tenth and Douglas where the several parts of the procession will concentrate.

The procession will march through the principal streets of the city returning to headquarters, in front of which will be erected a platform 10 by 15 feet and 6 feet above the sidewalk. From this the speech will be addressed by Gov. Davenport, United States Senators Van Wyck and Manderson, and Congressman Weaver.

The line of march and the order of procession will be given in this evening's paper.

THE DEMOCRATIC DEMONSTRATION. The Central Cleveland and Hendricks club of this city are now contemplating a great demonstration, to take place on the evening of the 21st. The affair, as now intended, will be a purely local event, only the various clubs in the city participating. It is expected by those having charge of it that it will eclipse the one of three weeks ago, when 1000 torch-bearers were in procession. A strenuous effort is now being made to procure John G. Carlisle, the present speaker of the house of representatives, to deliver the address on that evening.

THE PEOPLE'S PARTY. The various local organizations of the Butler or People's party in the city are looking forward to a time when they shall receive a little political pabulum. An invitation has been extended to Col. Harper, the great Butler stump orator from Indiana, to be present and address them. The date for holding the meeting has not yet been determined, but will be some day next week.

FIXING TO HEAR THE NEWS. The Central Cleveland and Hendricks club of this city has completed arrangements with the Western Union Telegraph company to receive the news from Ohio at their headquarters, on Harney and Fourteenth streets, this evening. A single wire will be stretched from the main office to the headquarters, where a battery will be located. The cost for this luxury will be $30, and 40 cents per hour for the time an operator is employed.

The same proposition was laid before the executive committee of the republican county central committee last evening at its meeting, but the matter was deferred until to-day.

Do not purchase a piano or organ elsewhere until you have examined the magnificent stock at McEwen & Bro.'s warerooms, and seen the bona fide bargains offered by them.

SLUGGED BY A STRANGER.

George Henry Receives a Wound Over the Eye, the Offender Escaping.

Last evening about 9 o'clock a well digger who lives in this city imbibed to freely in the ardent at Hans Young's saloon on the corner of Thirteenth and Farnam. Coming out of this drinking place he went across the street when he was met near Hellman's saloon by a man named George Henry who made some unnecessary remarks about the well digger's condition. Hot words followed, resulting in Henry's being knocked down and falling upon the pavement received a severe contusion over the right eye.

Henry's companion called for the police, the well digger with his pal walking down Thirteenth street to the alley and escaping. The police soon appeared and picked up Henry in a semi-unconscious condition and started with him for the jail. The slugger, who had run up the alley to Fourteenth street, came down Farnam, and unconsciously inquired of the police who had his Henry. The officials, who were taking the wounded man to jail, had not the slightest suspicion that he was the offender. The well digger went down to Ed. Maurer's saloon with his hands covered with blood and remained there until 11 o'clock.

Henry was taken to the city Bastille, and was afterwards released. He a second time went down to Young's saloon, and in his maudlin drunkenness provoked a quarrel with a stranger and was again run in, charged with "drunk and disorderly."

POLICE COURT.

A large Number of Wicked Ones Before the Bar this Morning.

In police court yesterday there were a large number evil-doers mostly plain drunks.

Gust Franklin and Jas. Lindsay were fined $5 each and costs for fighting.

Ag. Shultz was arrested for carrying concealed weapons. He had in his possession a potatoe wrapped in one end of a big red handkerchief, slung shot style, and is now a question whether or not a potatoe is a deadly weapon. He pleaded not guilty and his case was continued.

Belle Smith, Mrs. Cooney, Jane Daily, Mrs. Owen Connelly and Pat Conely, all got into a general row on Sunday. Jane Daily was pretty badly done up but she said she wasn't hurt much and on the recommendation of the city marshal, the whole outfit was discharged.

Larry Casey and Hugh Burroughs, for being drunk and disorderly, were fined $5 and costs.

P. F. Burns was arrested in Higgins' saloon, and when arrested had in his hand a revolver as long as a man's arm. He pleaded not guilty to carrying concealed weapons as he said he had it in his hand, but pleaded guilty to disturbance of the peace and was fined $5 and costs.

Mike Shea, the man who knocked out Sadie McBride and thus accomplished a feat never before accomplished by mortal man, was held until Sadie is able to appear.

Will Kennedy, Wm. Mack and H. Dawson were arrested for killing a horse, but as civil action had been commenced against them they were discharged.

TEN CENTS A YARD.

J. B. Baldwin Sues for His Commissions on Sioux Falls Granite.

There has been filed in the district court of Douglas county, the papers in a suit by J. H. Baldwin against William McBain & Co., the Sioux Falls granite contractors. Mr. Baldwin in his petition states that on or about January 9th, 1884, William McBain & Co. employed him to solicit signatures of the property owners along several streets and alleys in Omaha—proposed to be paved during the year 1884—in favor of Sioux Falls granite, and that as his pay for such services he was to receive ten cents for all granite laid in the streets and alleys during the year 1884, that might be furnished by McBain & Co., except that supplied to the street railway company. Mr. Baldwin then states that he secured signatures, and as a result certain streets and alleys were paved with Sioux Falls granite, the total number of yards amounting to 31,333, making his claim $3,133.30. He acknowledges the receipt of $300, and asks for the balance, $2,833, with interest from October 1st.

Mr. Baldwin has also garnished certain contractors—among them being Regan Bros. & McGovern, and John C. Regan—who he claims are indebted to McBain & Co.

These are the bare facts in the case, but there is considerable talk on the outside among various contractors and other parties concerning the matter.

STATE FAIR MANAGERS.

The Secretary to Advertise for Proposals for Locating the Fair—Claims Allowed.

A meeting of the board of managers of the State Board of Agriculture was held last evening in the Paxton hotel, at which members S. M. Barker, chairman, L. A. Kent, E. McIntyre, J. Jensen, E. N. Grinnell, and Chris Hartman, treasurer, and R. W. Furnas secretary were present.

All bills outstanding against the board were presented and allowed.

The secretary was instructed to advertise in Omaha and Lincoln daily papers for proposals for locating the state fair for the next five years, proposals to be filed with the secretary on or before the annual January meeting in 1885.

To-day Secretary Furnas will draw warrants for the claims allowed and not paid, after which he and Treasurer Hartman will determine the financial results of the state fair.

Vote of Thanks.

At a meeting of the Nebraska conference of the S. D. Adventists held in Omaha, the following resolution was passed unanimously:

Resolved, that we tender our sincere thanks for special favors granted to us by the railroads of Nebraska and Iowa, and by the owners of the Nebraska State Fair grounds and of the buildings thereon.

W. D. CHAPMAN, Conference Secretary.

The Coroner's Jury.

The coroner's jury yesterday finished the inquest upon the late Richard Norris, killed in the wreck at Elkhorn. The verdict was as follows:

"That Richard Norris came to his death through a collision between the second section of train No. 9 and a light engine bound out on the Union Pacific railroad near Elkhorn station, October 8th, 1884."

The grand jury is now engaged in investigating the matter.

Blaine and Logan.

All republicans who desire to turn out Thursday evening, Oct. 16th, with the mounted Blaine and Logan Club are requested to meet at the end of the pavement on North Sixteenth street, at 7 o'clock, p. m., fully prepared for the march to horses and equipments, and report to

A CHILD LOST.

An Exciting Hunt by Nearly Frantic Parents for a Lost Boy.

Sundry afternoon about three o'clock, little Grace Jones, aged about 2 years, wandered away from her home, corner of Twentieth and Cass streets. Her absence was soon discovered by her parents and of course they were nearly frantic when a visit to the houses of the neighbors failed to discover her whereabouts. A thorough search was at once instituted and the anxious mother went in one direction, while the father started the opposite way. Notice was given at police headquarters and signs were posted up on the principal street corners. The father hired a carriage and put large signs of a lost child upon the sides of the vehicle and drove through the streets in hopes of attracting the attention of some one who had seen the little one.

With all the diligent searching and inquiring the little one could not be found and the shades of night began to wrap the earth in a mantle of darkness. Who can know the feelings of that fond mother's heart or the distress of mind of that father as they saw the darkness of night close around the earth and their poor, little helpless darling out alone upon the streets.

In the meantime, a gentleman and his wife, who were out for a drive, saw a little girl near the opera house ground, and after the mother had been found, the child was lost. They took her into the carriage with them and continued their drive. They went out to the fourth and Cass streets, taking the child with them. They then reported at police headquarters that a child had been found.

About 9 o'clock, the mother, with a haggard and anxious look, called for the fourth or fifth time at the police station inquired if any thing had been heard from her darling. The answer "no" fell like lead upon her poor heart and again she wandered forth in the darkness to continue her weary search. Just after she had left the station the gentleman who had found the child entered and told his story. An officer flew post haste after the mother to tell her the joyful news. The mother ran with all her might to the corner of Seventeenth and Cass streets and there with deep emotion clasped her darling in her arms and never has there been a more joyful hour in the Jones household than was that.

The parties who picked up the child and took it with them, when they must have known that it was a lost child, are deserving of censure. Everybody ought to know that the police station is the first place to take a lost child, for there it is that those in search of lost children first go. Do not take a lost child to your house or detain it in any way, but take it immediately to the station house that it may be returned at once to its parents or loved ones.

AN EXCURSION PARTY.

Superintendents of Feeble-minded Institutions in the City.

Last week the annual meeting of Superintendents of Feeble Minded Institutions was held in Glenwood, Iowa. The object of these meetings is to talk over the work and compare notes and endeavor to trace the cause for idiosyncrasy. A very interesting meeting was held.

On Saturday the professors and a number of teachers came up to Omaha to see the queen city of the west. Among those upon the excursion were: Dr. Isaac N. Kerlin, superintendent of Pennsylvania and one of the oldest men in the work in this country; Dr. J. Q. Stewart, Kentucky; Dr. J. W. White, Indiana; Dr. W. B. Fish, Illinois; Dr. F. M. Powell, Iowa; Dr. George H. Knight, Minnesota; General Greene, Kansas. Besides these were the following teachers in the Glenwood institution: Mrs. A. C. Rogers, Misses Ella Frazee, Laura Baker, Annie Townsend, Mary Powell, Annie Huntson and Mattie McLean. They were all dressed in uniform and attracted considerable attention, many people taking the party for a wedding party.

The excursion was under the direction of Dr. A. C. Rogers, assistant physician of the Glenwood institution. J. S. Frazer, editor of the Glenwood Opinion, also accompanied the excursion party and added greatly to their enjoyment. While in the city the party took carriages and drove out to the fort and also to the Deaf and Dumb institution, and one and all of the physicians spoke in the highest terms of this institution and of the manner in which it is conducted by Prof. Gillipie. The national association is very desirous of having a feeble-minded institution started in this state. Many applications are made from the state for the Glenwood institution and the physicians stated that a number of Nebraska people had moved to Iowa to gain a residence so that their feeble minded children might enjoy the benefits of the institution at Glenwood, which now has over 250 inmates.

The institutions are generally started by private parties and after they are well under way the state authorities take hold of the matter and make them state institutions and open to all. The visiting doctors thought there was a great need of such an institution and are very much in hopes that some one will take hold of the matter.

Do not be deceived; ask for and take only B. H. Douglas & Son's Capsicum Cough Drops for Coughs, Colds and Sore Throats. D. S. and Trade Mark on every drop.

An Appropriate Finale.

The last game of base ball of the season will be played on the Union Pacific grounds, corner of Eighteenth street and St. Mary's Avenue, this afternoon at 3 o'clock, p. m., between the bankers of this city and the Hotel de Goetchins boys the white uniform of the U. P. club. The admission to this game will be 25 cents, and the proceeds will be devoted to the completion of the third story of the Child's Hospital, a need long felt by the management, as its present capacity is insufficient to accommodate the patients. This is a charity which should commend itself to the patronage of all, regardless of persuasion or belief, for though its management is under the auspices of the Episcopal church, it is non-sectarian in its operation, and its doors are open to all alike. The managers of the game, Messrs. A. H. Frey and Charles B. Keller, are sparing no effort to make it a success, and a large and select crowd are confidently expected to be present. By reference to a list of players it will be seen that a number of U. P. players will take part in the game, and the bankers having an equally strong team, a spirited and exciting contest may be expected. The bankers will present Frey and (Creighton), and Hotel de Goetchins Garneau, and Funkhouser, as their respective batteries.

WITNESSES FOR GOETCHINS. BANKERS. Lee Funkhouser, Chas. Creighton, James Sarneau, A. H. Frey, W. P. Rockwell, J. H. Sharp, J. L. Speed, Chas. Morgan, A. H. Newell, Robt. Frey, M. F. Funkhouser, Frank McGuire, C. B. Keller, Frank Hamilton, R. S. Ege, Thomas McGraw, William Cortan, Neils Nelson.

Funeral of Richard Norris.

The funeral of Richard Norris, the fireman who died from the injuries he received at the wreck at Elkhorn, occurred on Saturday forenoon at 10:30. The obsequies were attended by a large circle of friends who sympathized deeply with the bereaved friends and especially with the young widow who was so soon called upon to part with her best friend. The Emmett Monument Association, of which the deceased was a member, attended in a body and assisted in the last sad rites. The floral offerings were very fine. Mr. Wm. Johnson, the engineer with whom Mr. Norris had run for some time, sent in a beautiful floral design, and also the conductor and brakemen of the train he had been in the habit of running on. The remains were buried in St. Mary's sepulchre.
